The 18th Annual Uganda Paediatric Scientific Conference:

“Child health in the post Covid-19 era”

Date: 24th – 25th November 2022

Venue: Hotel Africana, Kampala

Subthemes:

1. Recovery of Maternal and Neonatal Health services
2. Immunization (new vaccines, catch up vaccination and recovering vaccination coverage)
3. HIV and TB success stories – role of quality improvement in scaling up services
4. The double burden of communicable & non-communicable diseases after covid-19
5. Child and adolescent mental health post covid
6. Partnerships for Child health education and research

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS:

Abstracts are invited for both oral and poster presentations in line with the Main theme and Subthemes.

Abstract Structure
All abstracts should be formatted as follows:
- Single line spacing, Times New Roman 12, in Microsoft Word
- Title: Use block capitals in bold, not more than 15 words
- Authors: List authors by surname, starting with the presenting author. Do not list titles or qualifications
- Affiliations: Start on a new line, include institution, city/location and country.
- Format Structured layout: Option 1: Background, Methods, Results, and Conclusions. Option 2: Background, program description, lessons learnt, next steps
- Corresponding/presenting author contact details should be clearly stated including email and phone contact.
- Abstracts must be a maximum of 250 words.

Submission deadline:
All abstracts must be submitted in electronic form by email to upa2022conference@gmail.com not later than 15th October 2022. All received abstracts will be acknowledged. Notification will be given by 30th October 2022.

CONFERENCE REGISTRATION FEES:
Registered UPA members: 70,000 ushs
Associate Members: 50,000 ushs
Foreign Delegates: USD 100.